

Basic English Structure

Simple

- S+V
 - I go to school every day.
 - I used to wake up and go to school every day.

Complex

- Subordinating conjunction
 - While he is cooking, she is watching TV.
 - As long as you do not behave, I think we will be fine.
- Which/ that
 - The car that bought last year still works perfectly.
 - The global temperature rose by 1 degree Celsius last year, which caused floods and other natural disasters around the world.

preposition + v.inf

- I believe in doing good things.
- I am against breaking the law.
- Thank you for choosing us.

V. INFINITIVE

- to be => be
- to have => have

I will have to wake up early tomorrow.

I will not be late for tomorrow.

I have to be strong for this.

adjective/ noun endings

-age: e.g., breakage, storage

-al: e.g., arrival, proposal

-ce/-cy: e.g., convenience, efficiency

-ance/-ence: e.g., importance, dependence

-dom: e.g., freedom, kingdom

-hood: e.g., childhood, brotherhood

-ism: e.g., capitalism, feminism

-ity/-ty: e.g., quality, possibility

-ment: e.g., development, improvement

-ness: e.g., happiness, kindness

-ship: e.g., friendship, leadership

-th: e.g., strength, width

-tion/-sion: e.g., exploration, discussion

-ure: e.g., capture, failure

-ance/-ancy: e.g., arrogance, vacancy

-cy: e.g., urgency, efficiency

-ery: e.g., bravery, nursery

-hood: e.g., childhood, neighborhood

-ism: e.g., optimism, patriotism

-itude: e.g., gratitude, fortitude

-ness: e.g., kindness, darkness

-ship: e.g., friendship, internship

-th: e.g., length, warmth

-ure: e.g., pleasure, exposure whom/ whose

- Whom → if the person is the object of the verb
- Whose → if the modified noun belongs to the person
 - The teacher, whom we greatly admire, won the prestigious award.
 - The book, whose author is unknown, has become a bestseller.
 - The athlete, whose performance was outstanding, received a standing ovation.
 - The family, whose house was damaged in the storm, sought temporary shelter.
 - The company, whose products are renowned for their quality, experienced significant growth.

Comparatives

1. Adjective with "-er":

- This book is longer than that one.
- She is taller than her brother.
- The coffee is hotter than the tea.

2. Adjective with "more":

- He is more intelligent than his classmates.
- The movie was more exciting than I expected.

It's important to note that there are some irregular comparatives where the adjective changes completely:

- Good → better: This is a better solution. --> best
- Bad → worse: Today's weather is worse than yesterday's. --> worst

Additionally, comparatives can be used with "than" to establish the comparison between two elements:

- She is smarter than her friend.
- This car is faster than the previous model.

Comparatives can also be used in longer phrases or sentences:

- The more you practice, the better you will become.

Conditionals

1. Zero

a. If I heat water, it boils.

2. First

a. If I wake up late, I will miss school.

3. Second

a. If I were a boy, I would understand you more.

b. If I won the lottery, I would buy a castle in France

4. Third

a. If you had told me earlier, I would have left home with you.

b. Assuming that I had studied harder, I would have passed the exam.

Parallel Structure

- 1.The company aims to innovate, inspire, and excel in the market.
- 2.She is not only a great singer but also a skilled dancer.
- 3.The team was motivated, determined, and focused on winning the championship.
- 4.He is known for his charm, wit, and impeccable sense of style.
- 5.The government must invest in education, healthcare, and infrastructure to improve the quality of life for its citizens.

Punctuation

Colon (:) :

1. Please bring the following items to the party: drinks, snacks, and party decorations.
2. The instructions are clear: turn the knob to the right and push the button.

Semi-colon (;):

1. I have a meeting at 10 a.m.; however, I can meet you for lunch at noon.
2. She loves to travel; she has been to over 20 countries.

Dash (—):

1. The concert was canceled due to bad weather — heavy rain and strong winds.
2. He finished his presentation — a comprehensive analysis of the market trends — to a standing ovation.

Transitional Words

1. However, I couldn't attend the meeting due to a prior commitment.
2. The weather was cold; nevertheless, we went for a hike.
3. In addition, I need to buy groceries and pick up the dry cleaning.
4. She studied diligently; as a result, she aced the exam.
5. Furthermore, I would like to express my gratitude for your support.
6. On the other hand, some people prefer tea over coffee.
7. In conclusion, it is essential to prioritize self-care for overall well-being.
8. The company implemented new policies; consequently, employee satisfaction improved.
9. Moreover, the team demonstrated exceptional collaboration skills.
10. Nonetheless, despite the challenges, we will persevere.

Run-on sentences

- 1.I went to the store to buy some groceries I ran into an old friend from high school we talked for hours about our lives and reminisced about our favorite memories.
- 2.The concert was amazing the band played all their hit songs the crowd was singing and dancing non-stop until late into the night.
- 3.She hurried to catch the bus but it was already pulling away she waved her arms and shouted for the driver to stop but he didn't notice her in the commotion.
- 4.We decided to go for a hike in the mountains the weather was perfect and the scenery was breathtaking we climbed to the top and enjoyed a picnic overlooking the valley.
- 5.He had a busy day at work meetings, presentations, and deadlines he barely had time for lunch and didn't leave the office until late in the evening when he finally got home, he collapsed on the couch exhausted.